PacketStorm Communications Announces
Satellite 2007 Trade Show Exhibit

Eatontown, New Jersey (February 8, 2007)

PacketStorm Communications® announced today the company will exhibit at the Satellite 2007 Trade Show at the Washington Convention Center. The Satellite 2007 is from February 20th to 22nd.

PacketStorm develops network emulators and other Internet Protocol test equipment. Network emulators provide "The Internet in a Box" by reproducing the unfavorable conditions of satellite and other wide area networks in a controllable and repeatable lab setting. Other Internet Protocol test equipment include custom designed products for specific customer applications.
